Specific revision and exam technique

Produce overview mind maps of each topic

Use Flash Cards to ensure you understand key concepts

Practice Source based questions

Make sure you know each key text, including the theoretical perspective of each

Specific revision and exam technique

Use practice papers regularly especially for 12 mark questions

Plan your essay's before you write them:

What are your arguments for the claim in the question

What are your arguments against the claim in the question

How far do sociologists agree?

You have 1 mark per minute – you can bank time with the short answer questions.

As a parent how can I help?

- Test key concepts based on flash cards
- Learn the key texts, including the theoretical perspective
- Encourage debate about social issues at home and ask your child to support their points with evidence
- Provide a quiet place for them to work (and snacks!)
- Encourage them to discuss any issues with their teacher
